DEDICATION

Our school, like any other, is as great as its leaders and the standards they set for their students. No matter how far we look, we could never find a person so interested in serving the school, understanding the students, and instilling in the students a desire to learn.

We, the Class of 1959, are proud to dedicate this, the 1959 Edentonian, to our counselor and sponsor, Miss Ann Mayo.

AROUND THE WORLD

OUR NEWEST ADDITION

In 1951, construction of the Edenton Junior-Senior High School was begun. In January, 1952, the students moved into the completed building. Included in the original plans was the construction of the auditorium on the north side of the building, but this was impossible at that time because of the lack of funds. At last in 1957, that auditorium, with a seating capacity of 490, was constructed at the approximate cost of $113,888.75. Our new auditorium has enriched the lives of each member of the student body by lending a pleasant background to our assembly programs and by providing a modern, well-equipped music department for our school. Now the Edenton Junior-Senior High School Building is in the shape of an E. All those who wear an E with dignity appreciate that fact.

Dear Carroll,

The end of the year brings many things to a close. I hope I can enjoy being with ^{you} through the coming years. You know that I wish you the best of luck in everything you do. Thanks for trying to understand me this year ~~when~~ all the many times that I was undecided.

Carroll, I wish you
the best of luck

Carroll,

It's been fun being in school with you. Don't let me down in football next year. I will not be out there with you all, but I'll be rooting for you all. Best of luck in all you undertake.

Carroll,

you're an ^(ish) imp, impossible, crusader, and the meanest boy I know, but I like you just the same. You're a fine person, but I wish you'd work a little harder in your school work. You have the ability but lack the effort. Best wishes in everything you undertake to do.
Good Luck in your lone life and I hope you can find the happiness you want and deserve. Have fun this summer and good luck in your school work next year.
Work real hard, because we want you out there on that football field. Work hard & remain sweet and nice as long as you live.
This we'll have me one more year in school. I shall miss all of you, but I know all of you crazy idiots ^(can't spell) apt at E. H. S. & Macdonald will say "Good (ridiculous) to bad rubbish!"

Best wishes always,

A friend always. (I guess)

Carroll,
In your bread-
basket of affection, Remember me as a crumb!

I'll always remember the good times we've spent together although I doubt you will. I hope you have finally found the happiness that you wanted & I don't begrudge that you its what you want + if it is I hope you can keep it better than I did Do your best always + remember it's the last key that opens the door.
Lots of luck to a cute guy.
